REVOLT FLARES UP IN SIX MEXICAN STATES

MAY CULMINATE IN FIGHTING BETWEEN FEDERAL, REBELS

VERA CRUZ MAY BE THE BATTLE SCENE BEFORE NIGHTFALL, REPORTED

REBEL ARMY SUPPORTED BY 12,000 SOLDIERS NOW IN THE BATTLE AREA

(By United Press)
Mexico City, Dec. 7.—Revolt in six Mexican states appeared likely to culminate in fighting between federal forces and the rebels in Vera Cruz at least before nightfall.

Some unconfirmed reports told of skirmishes already having taken place.

A rebel army supported by 12,000 soldiers and General Guadalupe Sanchez started fighting in the state of Vera Cruz. Four other states are reported to have followed suit and repudiated the federal government.

Dispatches from Vera Cruz today indicated that city was calm and that so far no conflict of any kind had taken place.

Vera Cruz Rebel Headquarters

Vera Cruz being the rebel headquarters, reports of the rapid spread of the revolt and its success were being sent broadcast by propagandists for the government.

Governor Laurence of San Luis Potosi, a lieutenant of De La Huerta, issued a proclamation in Zilita, throwing off allegiance to the Obregon government.

Revolt Aimed at Obregon

This made six states into which the revolt had spread. The war cry of the rebels is "down with imposition." The revolt is aimed at President Obregon and his candidate for the presidency, General Calles. The rebels back Adolfo De La Huerta.

Vera Cruz, hotbed of the insurrection, was entirely cut off from the capitol today. No trains are running, roads are blocked, communication by wire and phone is interrupted.

Federal Forces Move Promptly

Federal forces moved promptly across against the Vera Cruz rebels ready to attack and to confine the movements to the one state.

The movements in Vera Cruz as in the states of Michoacan, Guerrero, Jalisco and Tamaulipas are apparently entirely political and is due to the forthcoming election.

The uprising in Vera Cruz, however, is by far the most serious.

Mexico City is Calm

Mexico City was calm today as though nothing was happening. Business went on as usual. There was no exodus of foreigners. Many Americans gathered in small groups in the American and University clubs and at the Hotel Regis discussing the situation. There was no alarm except by those who feared the railroad to the north might be cut, preventing their going home for Christmas.

Obregon Confident of Quelling the Uprising

Some stores took advantage of the situation to increase their food prices. President Obregon who was just recovering from a serious illness when the revolt broke out, was back at the palace today, confident and optimistic.

Friends of the president said he would personally take charge of the troops if necessary. "No force will be spared to quell the rebellion," Obregon said in an interview. He appeared to be in somewhat better health.

REBEL LEADER ISSUES STATEMENT

Vera Cruz, Dec. 7.—A statement issued from the headquarters of General Guadalupe Sanchez, rebel leader, announced today that the insurrection had been started to prevent President Obregon dictating the election of Calles as his successor.

The proclamation said that the federal administration was attempting to impose a successor to Obregon on the nation and that consequently

Labor Party's Unexpected Gains in England

FIVE BODIES FROM A PUGET SOUND WRECK ARE PICKED UP TODAY

(By United Press)
Seattle, Wash., Dec. 7.—Five bodies from the wreck of the steamer T. W. Lake were picked up on the shores of Puget Sound today. Ten other persons are still unaccounted for.

The vessel, which carried no radio and plied on Puget Sound was caught in a gale while attempting to negotiate the treacherous pass of Lopez in the Straits of Juan De Fuca. Nothing was known of the disaster until the wreckage and bodies began coming ashore. The vessel carried a crew of fifteen men, all of whom are believed to have been lost.

RECOMMENDS AN INDUSTRIAL BUILDING

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Dec. 7.—Governor Preus will advocate to the state board of control the construction of an industrial building in the St. Cloud reformatory.

The girl's school at Sauk Center should have a gymnasium, the governor said.

He returned today from a visit to the two institutions.

"There are too many healthy young men doing nothing but picking rocks which does little good to them or anybody else," the governor said.

"I will recommend the construction of an industrial building where they can learn to do useful things."

LAMBS RIDE 150 MILES IN TRUCK; BRING TOP

W. McCutcheon of Hayward, Wis., a regular patron of this market, says the South St. Paul Daily Reporter, brought in a truck load of 25 head of lambs recently. They were some of his own raising and all were properly docked and trimmed and in pretty fair flesh, although they were not prime lambs.

They started their truck journey to this market at 5:30 p. m. Thursday and rode all night. They arrived in good shape and topped the market at $12. They averaged 75 pounds in weight. One heavy lamb sold out at $10.50.

This shipment indicates the scope of the truck haul prospects for this market and emphasizes the value to this city of good roads leading to all parts of the surrounding country, the Reporter added.

It was their duty to support Adolfo De La Huerta, liberal candidate to protest against such action.

The revolt started with a meeting of Mexican leaders and politicians at the home of Sanchez. This meeting ended at midnight when a message was sent to Obregon announcing the rebellion.

FEDERAL TROOPS IN MANEUVERS

Laredo, Texas, Dec. 7.—Reports of movement of large bodies of federal troops to combat the revolution started against the federal government in Vera Cruz yesterday, drifted into Laredo today.

The reports were not confirmed and no definite information as to the scope of the revolt or troop movements could be obtained. The lower Mexican border was quiet and there was no indication of a disturbance.

WILL DISTURB NO TREATY AGREEMENT

Washington, Dec. 7.—The De La Huerta revolt in Mexico will not disturb the treaty agreement between the United States and Mexico which recently made possible a resumption of friendly relations between the two countries, according to a belief expressed at the state department today.

MOVE TO RESTORE OLD PARTY, AIMS OF REPUBLICANS

REPUBLICAN VOLUNTARY LEAGUE ORGANIZED WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF DISTRICTS

LEADERS CLAIM THEY ARE OPPOSED TO "TRADING OF PARTY PRINCIPLES"

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Dec. 7.—Many republicans of Minnesota moved today to restore old party principles.

The Republican Voluntary League of Minnesota was organized with representatives from each congressional district.

The first principle of the league is: "A re-affirmation of the doctrines of the republican party which has made the party what it is in the nation's history."

Leaders are opposed to "trading of party principles," and insisted upon "a return of conditions within the party which will enable a majority of the party to direct its affairs."

They demand election of republicans who "shall do the bidding of the people of Minnesota."

While the revolt is a slap at the present republican organization in the state, it is neither a conservative nor progressive movement, it was stated by the delegates, but a movement to restore the party to its earlier traditions and time honored principles of government.

A set of principles was adopted, platform set forth and officers elected. Further organization will be completed later.

'STAY HOME' WARNING TO FILM ASPIRANTS

Los Angeles, Dec. 6.—Some 10,000 movie mad boys and girls come to Hollywood every month, trying to break into the celluloid world. And now that most of the studios are closed, and regular actors and actresses are idle, the authorities want to warn the "cinematic" to stay home. Mary Pickford addressed a crowd of 20,000 people, and gave the official warning. "She didn't want to tell the young people to stay home," she said, because the movies always needed new blood, but she did think it advisable that movie aspirants be in a position to wait five years in Hollywood for movie honors and to be able to do some work while waiting, and girls, she says, take mamma along, "you'll need her."

Absolutely, Mr. Shean! Film Actress Becomes Bride of Gallagher

Greenwich, Conn., Dec. 7.—Ed Gallagher of Gallagher and Shean and Anne Luther, screen actress, were married at the Pickwick Arms, here. Shean was present to murmur, "Absolutely, Mr. Gallagher," by way of benediction. So was Mr. Sheehan, the manager of the inn.

So was the Rotary club, which happened to be having its weekly dinner in an adjoining room. They gave the bride and bridegroom a sendoff after electing Gallagher and Shean honorary members of the club.

Judge Albert S. Mead of Greenwich performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Shean were the witnesses. The bride and bridegroom departed by automobile for Beechurst, L. I.

Miss Luther has just finished work in "The Governor's Lady," a new production, and it was at the motion picture studios, where Gallagher and Shean were doing some screen work, that the romance began.

This is Gallagher's second marriage. His first wife divorced him last summer.

REAL CAMPAIGNING FOR PRESIDENCY IN '24

LAWRENCE MARTIN (Copyright 1923 by United Press)
Washington, Dec. 7.—Real campaigning for the presidency in 1924 can now begin.

There is something for candidates to "shoot at."

President Coolidge's message to congress affords the target. The political significance of the message was not over-estimated by those political forecasters who in advance of its delivery said it would have a vital bearing on the 1924 campaign.

Politically the message did two things:

1. It gave Hiram Johnson a definite issue on which to combat Mr. Coolidge for the republican nomination.

2. It laid down the 1924 republican platform and therefore invites the democrats to line up on certain issues.

The favorable commendation which Mr. Coolidge gave the world courts is a made-to-order issue for Hiram Johnson. So is the Coolidge opposition to the bonus.

At the moment the sentiment of congress seems to be with Johnson rather than with the president on both issues. They constitute an issue of the republican party thus becoming a proper battle ground for rivals for party honors.

COUNTRY BANK SAFE YIELDED $40

25 SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES OF GREEN VALLEY BANK GAVE YEGGS NEARLY $12,000

(By United Press)
Marshall, Minn., Dec. 7.—Yeggs blew the safe of the Green Valley State bank, seven miles north of here early today and obtained $40 in cash. They also looted 25 safety deposit boxes of negotiable papers estimated to total between $4,000 and $12,000 in value.

The job was very similar to the robbery of the St. Leo bank about a month ago. Both banks are part of a chain of banks with H. J. Tillerman in charge as chairman of the board of directors.

H. Erickson is cashier. Erickson was aroused by an explosion about 4:20 a. m. which blew off the outer door of the bank vault and wrecked the interior of the bank. Windows were blown out. The yeggs had cut off all telephone wires before setting off the nitro-glycerine charge, and it was some time before word could be sent to Sheriff Andrew Christensen at Marshall.

A hammer found on the scene was taken from a garage next door to the bank. Other tools were also missing, but these evidently were taken along by the yeggs.

A stranger described as about five feet eight inches tall, ruddy complexion and sandy mustache is suspected. He was loitering around the bank most of yesterday.

MELLON FAVORS A TAX REDUCTION TO AID ALL INDUSTRY

BURDEN OF HIGH AND "UN- SOUND" TAXES NOW IMPOSED ON PEOPLE

CONSTITUTES MENACE TO CONTINUED PROSPERITY, SECRETARY OF TREASURY SAYS

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 7.—Business and industrial prosperity which returns to the United States this year after two lean years of post-war depression can be continued only through tax reductions, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon told congress in his annual report today.

The burden of high and "unsound" taxes now imposed on American people which "would have been thought fantastic and impossible of payment" before the war constitutes a "most insidious menace to continued prosperity," he declared.

He put the future of American economical life squarely up to congress. "The opportunities are presented to congress," he said, "to make the tax structure of the United States conform more closely to normal conditions and to remove the inequalities in that structure which directly injure our prosperity and cause strains upon our economical fabric."

As a result of the amazing recuperation from the depression of 1921 and 1922 Mellon declares business today "generally presents the appearance of being in a sound and stable condition."

McFARLAND URGES ELKS TO FIGHT BOLSHIEVISM

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 7.—Asserting there are 104 bolshevik newspapers published in New York and read by 5,000,000 persons, James G. McFarland, of Watertown, S. D., grand exalted ruler of the Order of Elks, appealed to members of the fraternity to combat the growth of bolshevism in the United States. The appeal was made in a speech here in connection with the laying of the cornerstone for a new Elks home. Mr. McFarland said that each of the 104 bolshevik papers he said were published in New York attacked civilization, law and order.

ANTI-KU KLUX BILL PASSED IN OKLAHOMA

(By United Press)
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Dec. 7.—The anti-Ku Klux Klan bill was passed by the lower house of the Oklahoma legislature today and will be sent to Governor Trapp for his signature tonight.

The bill provides against wearing of masks by members of any organization except upon their own property and prevents assault by masked parties.

AIRPLANE LIGHTS FOR NIGHT FLYING URGED

New York, Dec. 7.—Navigation lights on airplanes as well as beacon and boundary lights at landing fields were recommended by Lieutenants H. R. Harris and D. L. Brunner of the United States Air Service in addresses today before the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

End of Overproduction In Oil Work Seen by '24

Washington, Dec. 7.—George Otis Smith, director of the geological survey, testifying before the senate public lands committee, predicted that in the "present period of overproduction" in the oil industry would end by the middle of 1924.

FLOOD SWEEPS DOWN ON ILLINOIS COAL MINE AND 3 DROWN

(By United Press)
Belleville, Ill., Dec. 6.—At least three coal miners were drowned, it was established today, in a flood that swept down on 250 miners in the Radium coal mine near here late yesterday. Two of the bodies were recovered today.

The flood was loosed when miners picked the wall of their entry with pneumatic tools. The mine wall collapsed with a deafening roar and water and gas poured into the tunnel, about three-fourths of a mile from the main shaft.

The danger signal was sounded by the men in the entry and the 20 miners began a mad rush to escape. All of the men except the three, reached the main shaft and were lifted sixty feet to the surface. Some climbed the walls of the main shaft to the surface.

The dead are Louis Ambruster, 45; William Lescher, 40, and John Evans, 35.

'DOPE RESORT' FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Dec. 7.—A "dope resort" for boys and girls of Chicago schools was discovered today in the arrest of four persons on charges of selling drugs, police headquarters announced.

The four—King Brady, Tommy Gross, Susan Poindexter and Lillian Bass—all were taken in an apartment which was said to have been operated as a "dope emporium" where high school youths obtained narcotics.

A large quantity of opium and morphine was found in the apartment.

SOVIET IN HUGE POSTAGE STAMP DEAL

Moscow, Dec. 6.—One of the largest postage stamp deals on record has been concluded between the philatelic department of the soviet government and a New York business man, Maurice Sherman. The contract, ratified by the council of commissars, gives Mr. Sherman a monopoly of the sale in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Central America and South America and France of all the stamps ever issued on Russian soil, amounting to upward of 20,000 different varieties.

The stamps include not only the various revolutionary or counter revolutionary issues, but stamps of the former empire and some 5,000 varieties issued by the Zemstvos, or provincial district councils, prior to 1885 after the manner of the Wells-Fargo and other express companies in the United States in the middle of the last century.

Mr. Sherman will leave Moscow for Paris and New York within a few days with several thousand samples.

"Slightly Exaggerated"

Everyone recalls the statement of Mark Twain who, after reading his obituary in a newspaper, gave out a statement that the report was "slightly exaggerated." A reader recently sent us a clipping to the effect that 1,500 cats had been collected by children in New York City, for which they received five cents each, and asked if we thought such actions should be allowed. We sent the notice to General Manager Horton of the American S. P. C. A., New York City, who immediately replied: "The facts of the case are that the Bowling Green Neighborhood Association did foolishly, offer five cents each for stray cats brought to their office. As soon as we heard of it we protested and the offer was promptly withdrawn. The Association informed us that they paid for just one cat. Their treasury was depleted to the extent of five cents. The Society removed twenty-two cats. And the newspapers said that fifteen hundred cats were taken away to be hanged."—Our Dumb Animals.

SEEM TO RENDER BALDWIN VICTORY IMPOSSIBLE ONE

LABOR SWING MAY DEFEAT CONSERVATIVE PROPOSAL FOR A TARIFF

SOME FORM OF COALITION GOVERNMENT MAY HAVE TO BE FIXED UP

(By United Press)
London, Dec. 7.—Unexpected gains by labor in the general election made Premier Baldwin's chance of obtaining a majority in parliament appear hopeless this afternoon.

Coupled with registrations in between 20 and 30 constituencies by the liberals headed by Lloyd George, the labor swing rendered defeat of the conservative proposal for tariff an apparent certainty.

With about 200 constituencies yet to be heard from, it appeared the conservatives would lead with labor and the liberals in a close race for second and no party obtaining the majority necessary to elect a premier and control parliament.

At 2:45 p. m. the conservative had won 201 seats, the labor party 131 and the liberals 100 with ten scattered.

This was a total of 442 out of 615 to be filled.

Labor candidates had scored in a net gain of 32 seats, liberals 23 while conservatives had a net loss of 54.

Stanley Baldwin will resign a premier within a day or so unless some almost inconceivable development gives the conservatives a majority.

Some form of coalition government will have to be fixed up.

For Baldwin's government to remain in, the conservatives would have to secure 67 of the remaining 174 seats, which is practically impossible.

CRUSHING DEFEAT ADMINISTERED BALDWIN

London, Dec. 7.—A crushing and unexpected defeat was administered to Premier Stanley Baldwin and the conservative party in the British election.

Late this afternoon 313 labor and liberal candidates had been elected. This was more than a majority of the 615 seats in the house of commons and at the time 67 constituencies remained to be heard from.

One of the most striking features of the defeat of Baldwin, who must now resign, was that liberal candidates standing on a platform of levy on capital gained 40 seats.

At 5 p. m. with only 50 constituencies to be heard from the standing was:

Conservatives 243, labor 174, liberals 138, others 10; total 565.

David Lloyd George rushing about the country with his vitriolic attacks on the proposed tariff, the issue on which Baldwin called the election was another contributing feature.

The conservatives with 235 candidates returned this afternoon were assured of a plurality. Labor took second place with the combination of Asquith and Lloyd George; liberals third.

All parties suffered losses among their leaders. Lloyd George was elected at Carnarvon, Stanley Baldwin was elected, as was Asquith and Ramsay MacDonald.

But Arthur Henderson, labor leader, Winston Churchill, prominent in the liberal ranks and four members of the Baldwin cabinet were among those defeated.

Lady Astor, the Duchess of Atholl, Susan Lawrence and Margaret Bonfield were among the women elected. Lady Terrington was defeated.

New York, Dec. 7.—Navigation lights on airplanes as well as beacon and boundary lights at landing fields were recommended by Lieutenants H. R. Harris and D. L. Brunner of the United States Air Service in addresses today before the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

End of Overproduction in Oil Work Seen by '24

Washington, Dec. 7.—George Otis Smith, director of the geological survey, testifying before the senate public lands committee, predicted that in the "present period of overproduction" in the oil industry would end by the middle of 1924.

FLOOD SWEEPS DOWN ON ILLINOIS COAL MINE AND 3 DROWN

(By United Press)

Belleville, Ill., Dec. 6.—At least three coal miners were drowned, it was established today, in a flood that swept down on 250 miners in the Radium coal mine near here late yesterday. Two of the bodies were recovered today.

The flood was loosed when miners picked the wall of their entry with pneumatic tools. The mine wall collapsed with a deafening roar and water and gas poured into the tunnel, about three-fourths of a mile from the main shaft.

The danger signal was sounded by the men in the entry and the 20 miners began a mad rush to escape. All of the men except the three, reached the main shaft and were lifted sixty feet to the surface. Some climbed the walls of the main shaft to the surface.

The dead are Louis Armbruster, 45; William Lescher, 40, and John Evans, 35.

'DOPE RESORT' FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

(By United Press)

Chicago, Dec. 7.—A "dope resort" for boys and girls of Chicago schools was discovered today in the arrest of four persons on charges of selling drugs, police headquarters announced.

The four—King Brady, Tommy Gross, Susan Poindexter and Lillian Bass—all were taken in an apartment which was said to have been operated as a "dope emporium" where high school youths obtained narcotics.

A large quantity of opium and morphine was found in the apartment.

SOVIET IN HUGE POSTAGE STAMP DEAL

Moscow, Dec. 6.—One of the largest postage stamp deals on record has been concluded between the philatelic department of the soviet government and a New York business man, Maurice Sherman. The contract, ratified by the council of commissars, gives Mr. Sherman a monopoly of the sale in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Central America and South America and France of all the stamps ever issued on Russian soil, amounting to upward of 20,000 different varieties.

The stamps include not only the various revolutionary or counter revolutionary issues, but stamps of the former empire and some 5,000 varieties issued by the Zemstvos, or provincial district councils, prior to 1885 after the manner of the Wells-Fargo and other express companies in the United States in the middle of the last century.

Mr. Sherman will leave Moscow for Paris and New York within a few days with several thousand samples.

"Slightly Exaggerated"

Everyone recalls the statement of Mark Twain who, after reading his obituary in a newspaper, gave out a statement that the report was "slightly exaggerated." A reader recently sent us a clipping to the effect that 1,500 cats had been collected by children in New York City, for which they received five cents each, and asked if we thought such actions should be allowed. We sent the notice to General Manager Horton of the American S. P. C. A., New York City, who immediately replied:

"The facts of the case are that the Bowling Green Neighborhood Association did foolishly, offer five cents each for stray cats brought to their office. As soon as we heard of it we protested and the offer was promptly withdrawn. The Association informed us that they paid for just one cat. Their treasury was depleted to the extent of five cents. The Society removed twenty-two cats. And the newspapers said that fifteen hundred cats were taken away to be hanged."—Our Dumb Animals.

SEEM TO RENDER BALDWIN VICTORY IMPOSSIBLE ONE

LABOR SWING MAY DEFEAT CONSERVATIVE PROPOSAL FOR A TARIFF

SOME FORM OF COALITION GOVERNMENT MAY HAVE TO BE FIXED UP

(By United Press)

London, Dec. 7.—Unexpected gains by labor in the general election made Premier Baldwin's chance of obtaining a majority in parliament appear hopeless this afternoon.

Coupled with registrations in between 20 and 30 constituencies by the liberals headed by Lloyd George, the labor swing rendered defeat of the conservative proposal for tariff an apparent certainty.

With about 200 constituencies yet to be heard from, it appeared the conservatives would lead with labor and the liberals in a close race for second and no party obtaining the majority necessary to elect a premier and control parliament.

At 2:45 p. m. the conservative had won 201 seats, the labor party 131 and the liberals 100 with ten scattered.

This was a total of 442 out of 610 to be filled.

Labor candidates had scored in net gain of 32 seats, liberals 23 while conservatives had a net loss of 54.

Stanley Baldwin will resign a premier within a day or so unless some almost inconceivable development gives the conservatives a majority.

Some form of coalition government will have to be fixed up.

For Baldwin's government to remain in, the conservatives would have to secure 67 of the remaining 174 seats, which is practically impossible.

CRUSHING DEFEAT

ADMINISTERED BALDWIN

London, Dec. 7.—A crushing and unexpected defeat was administered to Premier Stanley Baldwin and the conservative party in the British election.

Late this afternoon 313 labor and liberal candidates had been elected. This was more than a majority of the 615 seats in the house of commons and at the time 67 constituencies remained to be heard from.

One of the most striking features of the defeat of Baldwin, who must now resign, was that liberal candidates standing on a platform of levy on capital gained 40 seats.

At 5 p. m. with only 50 constituencies to be heard from the standing was:

Conservatives 243, labor 174, liberals 138, others 10; total 565.

David Lloyd George rushing about the country with his vitriolic attacks on the proposed tariff, the issue on which Baldwin called the election was another contributing feature.

The conservatives with 235 candidates returned this afternoon were assured of a plurality. Labor took second place with the combination of Asquith and Lloyd George; liberals third.

All parties suffered losses among their leaders.

Lloyd George was elected at Carnarvon, Stanley Baldwin was elected, as was Asquith and Ramsay MacDonald.

But Arthur Henderson, labor leader, Winston Churchill, prominent in the liberal ranks and four members of the Baldwin cabinet were among those defeated.

Lady Astor, the Duchess of Atholl, Susan Lawrence and Margaret Bonfield were among the women elected. Lady Terrington was defeated.

John Gilpin.

John Gilpin was a London linen draper and train band captain, whose amusing adventures are related by Cowper in his ballad entitled "The Diverging History of John Gilpin, Showing How He Went Further Than He Intended and Came Safe Home Again." The original of the poem is said to have been a Mr. Bayer or Beyer, a famous linen draper, whose establishment was on Paternoster row, where it joins Chancery Lane. The story was related to Cowper by Lady Austen (who remembered it from her childhood) to divert the poet from his melancholy. The poem first appeared in 1782, and was afterward included in the second volume of Cowper's works.

Howard Curry, for many years a prominent official of the Northern Pacific Railway, was in the city this week and called upon many of his old-time Brainerd friends. He has been in poor health for the past year, but is now steadily improving. It is said, which will be good news to all who know him locally.

Royal Neighbors Meet The Royal Neighbors will meet tonight. There will be election of officers. The social club meets directly after the meeting.

John Gilpin.

John Gilpin was a London linen draper and train band captain, whose amusing adventures are related by Cowper in his ballad entitled "The Diving History of John Gilpin, Showing How He Went Further Than He Intended and Came Safe Home Again." The original of the poem is said to have been a Mr. Bayer or Beyer, a famous linen draper, whose establishment was on Paternoster row, where it joins Cheapside. The story was related to Cowper by Lady Austen (who remembered it from her childhood) to divert the poet from his melancholy. The poem first appeared in 1782, and was afterward included in the second volume of Cowper's works.

CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENTS

CORRECT REASONING

The Chiropractic reasoning is that in order for anyone to be healthy the natural amount of life force must be generated in the brain and sent out over the nerves to every tissue cell in the body where function takes place. The life force then flowing from the brain over the nerves to the tissues is the cause of health. Health is yours, not for the asking, but for the taking of adjustments.

Consultation, spinal analysis and booklets free. House and country calls made, day or night.

Finest Bird in Entire Show Was a
White Leghorn Pullet Owned by
Mrs. Joshua Peterson

The third annual poultry show, conducted by the Crow Wing County Poultry Association, came to a close Thursday night, acclaimed by all to be the most successful ever held in this territory, both in point of attendance and in the number and quality of the exhibits.

The finest bird in the entire show, according to the judge, was a white leghorn pullet, owned by Mrs. Joshua Peterson, residing at 1002 Short street, Brainerd. This pullet was awarded the Tribune-Hitch loving cup, won last year by the Clovercrest Poultry Farm, of White Bear.

The three birds next in point of excellence were, a Rhode Island Red cockerel, owned by Hugo Plock, 608 South Fifth street, Brainerd, a white Plymouth Rock hen, owned by Mrs. C. W. Barr, of Long Lake township, and a Buff Orpington hen, the property of H. J. Topping, of Sauk Rapids.

A very fine exhibit of white Plymouth Rock chickens and mallard ducks was brought down from the Breezy Point pens, and carried away some very attractive awards. Capt. Billy Fawcett won first prize on his white Plymouth Rock cockerel, and first, second, third and fourth prizes on white Plymouth Rock pullets. Also first prize on mallard drakes, and first and second prize on mallard hens.

In conjunction with the poultry show at the Gardner auditorium, an excellent program of interest to breeders was held in the farmers' room at the court house on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. A. J. Hayes, of the First National Bank, Brainerd, spoke on the subject, "Poultry for Profit," and County Agent E. G. Roth on "Poultry Raising in Crow Wing County," at the last program of the show.

One of the interesting talks on Thursday was that of Mrs. S. S. Rood, a resident of Rabbit Lake township, in the northeastern part of the county. Her subject was, "My Experiences with Poultry." It was a practical talk by a practical poultry woman, whose books show a profit of $834.87 on 325 White Leghorn hens from November 1st, 1922 to November 1st, 1923.

CHORAL SOCIETY

Meets Tonight at Iron Exchange
Hall For Regular Rehearsal

The Brainerd Choral society meets again tonight for its regular weekly rehearsal. Last week there was a very commendable representation of singers in spite of the fact that it was the evening after Thanksgiving. Tonight there should be many more present. The society has begun the rehearsal of a very pretentious number entitled "Gallia" by Charles Gounod. It is a beautiful composition worthy a place on the program of any singing organization, and the larger the organization the more beautiful the number will sound. Therefore, all singers of Brainerd who can possibly arrange to associate themselves with our choral society are urged to do so. Remember tonight at 8:15 the society meets in the Iron Exchange hall.

Hundreds of people have already called on us at the big sale now on. Hall's Music House. 15913

Black Velvet Is Used for Afternoon Frock

This winsome black velvet afternoon frock is banded in skunk and is trimmed with brilliant orange velvet. The drossy lace hat completes the outfit.

Interesting Notes of Importance to Women

The suppleness of this season's soft velvets makes them particularly graceful for evening cloaks. Invariably topped by a wide fur collar, these cloaks permit the velvet to be gathered up into soft ruffles tier on tier.

One young London beauty startled society by appearing at a ball recently with a cameo pin fastened around one ankle by a black velvet ribbon. Such use of a cameo on the wrist is not uncommon but whether the ankle ornament will be widely adopted remains to be seen.

A marvelous pajama suit of heavy silk shown in New York is decorated in orange, pale green and black in batik design. The colors are painted on by hand.

The choker necklace is now accompanied by the choker bracelet and the two may be had in a set with earrings to match. The choker bracelet is merely a tight bracelet of big glass beads, matching the necklace.

Narrow metallic ribbon, in silver, gold or bronze, is run into some of the more elaborate satin lingerie. Occasionally the upper part of such lingerie has a yoke of brocade or metallic satin, the rest of the garment being of plain georgette.

As it is today, if you want a normal waistline you may have it; if not, your waistline may continue as low as you wish. As for the length of skirts they are theoretically longer but actually shorter if anything.

Who said the day of the coat frock was over? Today the coat frock is more in favor than ever. Many of the street dresses in woolen and serge materials are smartly tailored in coat effect.

Half the dresses one sees today are made up of lace and the other half of the dresses one sees are trimmed with flowing lace panels, flounces, or sleeve ruffles. Bits of bright embroideries are appearing as supplements to the lace trimmings.

Neglected coughs—

A cold often leaves behind a cough that hangs on and on—wearing you out with its persistent hacking. Dr. King's New Discovery will stop it quickly by stimulating the mucous membranes to throw off the clogging secretions. It has an agreeable taste. All druggists.

Sir Roger de Coverley.

The name is that of a member of an imaginary club, under whose auspices the Spectator was supposed to be edited. Sir Roger is the type of an English gentleman of the time of Queen Anne (1702-1714), and figures in thirty papers of the Spectator. He is noted for his modesty, generosity and hospitality. The name Sir Roger de Coverley was also given to a dance, similar to the Virginia reel, and supposed to have been the original of it. The title is derived from the English squire described in the Spectator.

The "Tantony" Bell.

The "tantony" bell was rung from churches in certain parts of Northamptonshire at 7 a. m. and at 7 p. m., to mark the times when gleaners in the cornfield were to begin work and finish for the day. In ancient times, the "tantony" bell was rung to call home the swine-herd, and it is probable that the name "tantony" is a corruption of St. Antony, for centuries considered the patron saint of swine-herds and swine.

Right-Handedness.

Of two pay telephones in a shop, the one on the right side took four times as much money as the one on the left. This curious influence of the dominant side of the body was lately demonstrated by evidence that speakers before a large audience have a tendency to address the right-hand side if the speaker happens to be left-handed. The same unconscious tendency may be seen in the schoolroom.

Cloth Bag Container for Your Vegetables

A convenient kitchen appearance is the cloth bag that will hold a head of lettuce to be put into the ice box, or a bunch of radishes or perhaps a longer container for the celery stalks. Soft muslin is best for these, and several sets are none too many, for they should be laundered and kept sweet and clean. Make them wide enough and long enough so that whatever is put in them will not be crushed when the draw string is pulled up.

They should have a draw string, of course. Make the bags of different lengths and widths, so that all kinds of vegetables may be put into them and laid on the ice. Stitch them across the ends and up the sides. Turn a wide hem, stitch twice with a half-inch space between, run in a neat draw string, and they are ready for use. Once these bags are used, the housewife will never again be without them.

From cretonnes, calicoes, percales and other left-overs, pot-holders can be made, and there can never be too many of these in the kitchen. A good size for these is eight inches square. They can be hung by a brass ring sewn in the corner, or by a loop made from the material.

Attractive Blouses.

The newest blouses of printed crepe, showing fresh light colors, are to be had both in hip bands and jacquette models, the former finished with Peter Pan collars and cuffs of white or gaudy with knife-plaited edgings. Cross-over blouses made of Deauville handkerchiefs show wide faggot stitched hems of plain georgette of the same color as the suit with which they are worn. White Shetland wool sweater blouses of jumper shape, worked all over with bright colored silk cross stitch designs, are worn with white coats and skirts.

A CLEAR, CONCISE MESSAGE

THE president's message, anxiously awaited by congress and the nation at large, stands as a clear and concise declaration. The first thing to be commended is its brevity. A strong message throughout, it should commend itself to the entire country.

President Coolidge speaks his mind, clearly and unfettered, in the forceful style we shall have to designate as the Coolidge way. There is no hint of dictation anywhere.

He grouped his main points first. He views a tax reduction as the first essential, for "to reduce war taxes is to give every home a better chance."

"Of all the services which the congress can render to the country, I have no hesitation in declaring this one (tax reduction) to be paramount. The country wants this measure to have the right of way over all others."

"High taxes reach everywhere and burden everybody. They beat most heavily on the poor. They diminish industry and commerce. They make agriculture unprofitable. They increase the rates of transportation. They are a charge on every necessity of life."

Flatly and unequivocally, the president said he was opposed to a bonus. He urged careful consideration of veterans' legislation to be proposed by the American Legion, said the veterans must be given every care, promised to remedy evils disclosed by the senate investigation.

He commends the budget system which has effected great economy in the conduct of public business.

With the large railway shops in Brainerd, this city is interested in his stand on railway legislation. He believes in reconstructing the rate system, fostering settlement by agreement of labor controversies, facilitating consolidation of railroads. The railroad labor board should be undisturbed.

Development of waterways means much to the nation. Of interest to Brainerd is his cooperation given "the great power and navigation project of the St. Lawrence river, for which efforts are being made to secure the necessary treaty with Canada."

In foreign affairs he enunciates the American policy of minding our own business, recognizing our obligations to help others, but reserving "to the decision of our own judgment the time, the place and the method." Neither he nor the senate purposes any change toward the League of Nations.

Russia must show that she recognizes the sanctity of international obligations before America enters into relations.

The tariff law has produced "abounding prosperity" and should not be tinkered with.

Brainerd and Crow Wing county, like other parts of the west and middle west, face a farm problem. President Coolidge believes that no complicated scheme of relief, no resort to the treasury will settle the farm problem. He believes that in simple and direct measures put into operation by the farmer himself lies the only real source for restoration.

Senators Magnus Johnson and Henrik Shipstead have since voiced their disapproval of this section of the president's message. Senator Johnson said he had hoped the president would offer some practical method of relief for agriculture. Cooperative marketing, said Senator Johnson, was not enough to pull the farmer out of the hole.

These are the measures of relief President Coolidge lists as being of material assistance to the farmer; and he favors them:

Reduction of national and local taxes; lowered freight rates; reduction of wheat acreage; cooperative marketing; government loans as emergency aid; cheaper fertilizer; courses in organization and cooperative marketing in agricultural schools; assistance for wheat exports through the war finance corporation.

Reverting to debts contracted by Europe, the president lets it clearly be understood that debtor nations are expected to pay up. He emphatically opposes cancellation.

The Northwest is interested in the coal problem, for every year there is the cry for sufficient coal at the docks and then the price is something that often upsets the householder.

The president admits that "public welfare requires a reduction in fuel prices," but how to get it is another question. He said that publicity about the industry was probably as far as the government could go in controlling wages and prices in normal times. He opposes government ownership and operation of the mines, and requested power to name a commission to act in fuel emergencies so as to prevent famines, profiteering and strikes.

Roads and reforestation, both important factors in Northwestern development, should have continued government support, said the president.

The president does not evade the prohibition question. He referred to the efforts made to stop rum smuggling. Interstate traffic should be stopped. Disrespect for the prohibition law he characterized as a menace, and said that citizens should not only obey the law, but should let it be known that they are opposed to others violating it.

Flood control work on the Mississippi and other rivers named should be resumed, he said.

The army and navy should be strengthened. There should be child labor and minimum wage amendments to the constitution. We should carefully restrict immigration.

It is a great and strong message, clearly written, well expressed. It should commend itself to the entire country. It takes up every great phase of American development and the furtherance of American aims. It marks with no uncertainty a path along which progress can continue to be gained. It will bear re-reading.

Every citizen should become familiar with its contents. The Dispatch advocates its reading in the schools so that civic classes and others may become acquainted with the trend of thought of the nation's chief executive.

WHAT THE COUNTRY NEEDS

Alvah Eastman, of the St. Cloud Daily Journal-Press, makes this sage comment:

"This country needs just now more attention to common sense thrift and practical economy, which means keeping out of debt and living within one's income."

WOODHEAD MOTOR COMPANY

Showing Special Display of Ford Cars and Trucks and Fordsons This Week

The special display of Ford cars and trucks and Fordsons being held this week by the Woodhead Motor Company, local Ford dealer, is attracting much attention from both residents of the city and those living nearby.

The week has been set aside by the Minneapolis Branch of the Ford Motor Company for a complete showing of Ford products throughout the entire branch territory and dealers everywhere are participating.

The new Ford cars show many improvements, both in exterior appearance and in interior arrangement, particularly the enclosed types, the coupe and four door sedan. The convenience and comfort afforded by the closed cars is winning many enthusiastic comments from women who have visited the display.

Ford trucks and Fordson tractors are coming in for much consideration by business men and farmers. The truck is this year enjoying a greater popularity than ever before, because of its adaptability to all sorts of hauling and delivery work and the economy and efficiency which it effects.

The Fordson, first introduced as a farm implement, is now filling many industrial power requirements when used with special equipment and contractors, road builders and manufacturers are finding new uses for it right along.

The special display will continue over Saturday and the show rooms at 428 South Seventh street will be open every evening until 9 o'clock.

KNIGHTS OF SIR GALAHAD

Formed at St. Paul's Episcopal Church by E. J. Egan. Next Meeting Dec. 14th

Under the direction of E. J. Egan, the genial court reporter for Judge W. S. McClenahan, the boys of St. Paul's Episcopal Sunday school are organizing a club of the Knights of Sir Galahad.

A preliminary meeting was held at the rectory on Wednesday evening, when Mr. Egan explained the objects of the organization and the meaning of the five degrees, or "steps" to be taken by the members, and plans for the activities of the club were informally discussed.

The boys enjoyed a most delightful evening with Rev. Walton and family. The next meeting will be held at the rectory on Friday evening, December 14th, when it is hoped the organization may be perfected.

Let Your Troubles Roll Away

Every time you buy a load of ordinary coal, the empty truck rolls away with so many dollars of your money. Furthermore, you will find you have bought a certain amount of trouble along with your coal.

Now, CONSOLIDATION ELKHORN and ZEIGLER NUT are coals of hard, firm structure. They do not break easily, and thus eliminate your loss from that source.

Furthermore, when put into your bin, they do not fill the house with dirt, and eliminate trouble from that source. The next time they take an empty coal truck away from your place, why not make sure they leave the money, and take the trouble with them.

57 SERVICE MEN IN BRAINERD SECTOR

Former Soldiers Are Taking Training on Farms in This District

BRAINERD SCHOOL BOARD

Latter in Conjunction With U. S. Veterans Bureau For Disabled Soldiers, Supervising Training

Fifty-seven former service men, are taking training on farms in the Brainerd district, under the supervision of the local Board of Education, in conjunction with the United States Veterans Bureau for disabled soldiers, according to L. F. Hohman, secretary of the board.

These men are receiving their training under the direction of the Brainerd school board under the provisions of a contract with the Veterans Bureau. The board receives monthly tuition from the government for each man.

The trainees are paid under a scale provided which allows each single man $100 monthly, while a married man gets $100 for himself, $35 for his wife, $10 for one child, $7.50 for the second, and $5 for the third child each month. Out of this money, he pays for the land he has purchased on the monthly installment basis, and for the improvements and stocking of his farm.

Various kinds of intensive farming are taken up by these trainees. Some have gone in for dairying, other poultry raising, bee culture, fur farming, berry raising, land clearing, and general agriculture.

There is a supervisor and two instructors in the Brainerd district who keep in close touch with these embryo farmers, visiting them in favorable weather every week or ten days, and doing all in their power to make the efforts of the trainees successful.

Leroy Uptergrafft is the supervisor of this work in the Aitkin and Brainerd districts. His two instructors working in the latter district are J. I. Svendsen, working in Crow Wing county, and R. C. Roth with headquarters at Wadena. Mr. Roth is a brother of County Agent E. G. Roth. The local board of education will undoubtedly put a third instructor in this territory in the near future, midway between Brainerd and Wadena, probably with headquarters at Staples, it is said.

Mr. Svendsen, who is stationed at Brainerd, states that the men under his attention are doing exceptionally good work. The first requisite in the program is to have the trainees satisfied with the land they have purchased and with the line of farming that they have taken up. Unless they are well satisfied, they will not make a success of their work. This has been the trouble in many other districts, it is stated.

The men in Crow Wing county, says the instructor, with only one exception, are very well satisfied, and are very highly interested in their work of improving their farms. The one exception to this is in the case of a trainee who has never had any previous farming experience, the work all being new to him and more or less of an experiment. It is rather a case of unfitness for the job than a case of dissatisfaction, says Mr. Svendsen, and it is hoped to remedy this in the near future.

If you want to make the children and wife smile, see us for the recipe. Hall's big music sale now on.

PRELIMINARY HEARING

Frank Murphy of Ironton, Charged With Child Desertion, Bound Over to District Court

In municipal court Friday morning, Frank Murphy of Ironton, charged with desertion of his seven-months old child, was given a preliminary hearing, and bound over to the district court at the adjourned term opening January 2nd. Murphy was committed to the county jail unless bonds in the sum of $1,000 are furnished.

A. Olson, charged with speeding, plead guilty and was fined $5, as was Earl Engbretson, who plead guilty to the same charge.

TO CONDUCT A SHOE DEPARTMENT

B. L. Mathieson of Glenwood Leases Space Formerly So Used by H. F. Michael Co.

OPENING IS ON SATURDAY

Will Conduct Department in Harmony With Policies and Quality of Materials of Michael Co.

The H. F. Michael company announces that they have leased the space formerly used as a shoe department to B. L. Mathieson, lately of Glenwood, Minnesota who will conduct a shoe department in their store. Mr. and Mrs. Mathieson have made Brainerd their residence.

Mr. Mathieson will specialize on women's misses and children's shoes exclusively and will conduct the department in harmony with the policies and qualities of materials of the H. F. Michael Co.

Mr. Mathieson has his department in readiness to serve the patrons of the store on Saturday.

Long Lake Program

A basket social and program will be given at the new town hall of Long Lake on Tuesday evening, December 11. The proceeds will go to the Long Lake baseball club.

There are so many ways to serve Kellogg's Bran—the one great aid to humanity!

You will enjoy eating Kellogg's Bran because its nut-like flavor appeals to the taste. And, think what each mouthful is doing to drive constipation out of your system and to re-establish health! That's because it is ALL BRAN. Kellogg's Bran is scientifically made to relieve suffering humanity—IT WILL DO THAT AS NO OTHER FOOD CAN!

Physicians recommend the regular use of Kellogg's Bran for mild or chronic cases and as a preventive. Bran, eaten each day and in proper quantity, sweeps, cleanses and purifies the alimentary tract.

Get away from pills and cathartics—Kellogg's Bran will give you permanent relief from constipation.

Do not confuse Kellogg's Bran with common bran. Kellogg's is cooked,

POTATO GROWERS ARE IN THE CITY

E. W. Smith of Minnesota Potato Growers Association, Launches Acreage Pledges

CAMPAIGN TO CLOSE DEC. 21

Short and Intensive Drives Produce the Results, County Asked to Sign 1,230 Acres

E. W. Smith, representative of the Minnesota Potato Growers Association, spoke at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon at a potato growers meeting in the farmers room at the court house. A large number of local farmers were present to hear Mr. Smith.

Practically every county in the state is enthusiastically joining in the potato growing campaign which is now being launched for next year. It is expected that 350,000 acres will be planted in Minnesota in 1924 under contracts with the association. About 75,000 acres of this total has already been secured, and the work is hardly started as yet.

The acreage desired for counties in the vicinity of Brainerd for potatoes the coming season is of interest. Crow Wing county, for example has a quota of 1,230 acres; Cass county 5,017; Aitkin county, 2,064; Miller county, 7,318; Morrison county, 10,193; Todd county, 12,615, and Wadena county, 6,79 acres.

In six or seven counties, where the drive to secure contracts has been completed, the quotas for these counties has been exceeded in some cases as much as 550 acres. It is expected that most of the counties in the state will exceed their allotments.

Hubbard and Itasca counties will finish their campaigns for contracts by December 12th, it is expected, and Crow Wing and Cass counties by the 21st of this month. Short, intensive drives are the rule, and farmers are responding even better than was at first expected. The plan has been explained to them before, and the majority of them are eager to try out the proposition, it is stated.

Mr. Smith has five counties in the Brainerd district under his supervision, and is very enthusiastic over the manner in which the campaign is starting.

Clara Lutheran Church

The Luther League of the Clara Lutheran church will hold its annual business meeting this evening. A good program will be rendered. The pastor will give a lecture on "Queen Esther as a Heroine." Mrs. C. F. Anderson and Miss Sundine will entertain.

Announcing the Opening of Our New Shoe Department

Mr. B. L. Mathieson, formerly of Glenwood, Minn., wishes to announce that he has opened up a Shoe Department in our store, carrying Ladies, Misses and Children's footwear exclusively.

Mr. Mathieson has had a long experience in the shoe business and wishes to assure the public that his aim will be to carry shoes of quality, reasonably priced and properly fitted and takes great pleasure in inviting you to inspect his new Fall and Winter Styles.

BRAINERD SCHOOL BOARD

Latter in Conjunction With U. S. Veterans Bureau For Disabled Soldiers, Supervising Training

Fifty-seven former service men, are taking training on farms in the Brainerd district, under the supervision of the local Board of Education, in conjunction with the United States Veterans Bureau for disabled soldiers, according to L. F. Hohman, secretary of the board.

These men are receiving their training under the direction of the Brainerd school board under the provisions of a contract with the Veterans Bureau. The board receives monthly tuition from the government for each man.

The trainees are paid under a scale provided which allows each single man $100 monthly, while a married man gets $100 for himself, $35 for his wife, $10 for one child, $7.50 for the second, and $5 for the third child each month. Out of this money he pays for the land he has purchased on the monthly installment basis, and for the improvements and stocking of his farm.

Various kinds of intensive farming are taken up by these trainees. Some have gone in for dairying, other poultry raising, bee culture, fur farming, berry raising, land clearing, and general agriculture.

There is a supervisor and two instructors in the Brainerd district who keep in close touch with these embryo farmers, visiting them in favorable weather every week or ten days, and doing all in their power to make the efforts of the trainees successful.

Leroy Uptergraft is the supervisor of this work in the Aitkin and Brainerd districts. His two instructors working in the latter district are J. I. Swedberg, working in Crow Wing county, and R. C. Roth with headquarters at Wadena. Mr. Roth is a brother of County Agent E. G. Roth. The local board of education will undoubtedly put a third instructor in this territory in the near future, midway between Brainerd and Wadena, probably with headquarters at Staples, it is said.

Mr. Swedberg, who is stationed at Brainerd, states that the men under his attention are doing exceptionally good work. The first requisite in the program is to have the trainees satisfied with the land they have purchased and with the line of farming that they have taken up. Unless they are well satisfied, they will not make a success of their work. This has been the trouble in many other districts, it is stated.

The men in Crow Wing county, says the instructor, with only one exception, are very well satisfied, and are very highly interested in their work of improving their farms. The one exception to this is in the case of a trainee who has never had any previous farming experience, the work all being new to him and more or less of an experiment. It is rather a case of unfitness for the job than a case of dissatisfaction, says Mr. Swedberg, and it is hoped to remedy this in the near future.

If you want to make the children and wife smile, see us for the recipe. Hall's big music sale now on.

Long Lake Program

A basket social and program will be given at the new town hall of Long Lake on Tuesday evening, December 11. The proceeds will go to the Long Lake baseball club.

There are so many ways to serve Kellogg's Bran—the one great aid to humanity!

You will enjoy eating Kellogg's Bran because its nut-like flavor appeals to the taste. And, think what each mouthful is doing to drive constipation out of your system and to re-establish health! That's because it is ALL BRAN. Kellogg's Bran is scientifically made to relieve suffering humanity—IT WILL DO THAT AS NO OTHER FOOD CAN!

Physicians recommend the regular use of Kellogg's Bran for mild or chronic cases and as a preventive. Bran, eaten each day and in proper quantity, sweeps, cleanses and purifies the alimentary tract.

Get away from pills and cathartics—Kellogg's Bran will give you permanent relief from constipation.

Do not confuse Kellogg's Bran with common bran. Kellogg's is cooked, krumbed and ready to serve. It can be used in the most delightful baking products without in any way reducing its regulatory value. Try raisin bread or muffins or griddle-cakes made with Kellogg's Bran. Recipes are printed on each package.

Kellogg's Bran is nationally eaten for health's sake as a cereal—in winter time with hot milk. Others prefer it sprinkled over hot or cold cereals. Another way is to mix it with hot cereals just before serving. It can also be cooked with cereal. In each case add two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's Bran for each person; in chronic cases as much with each meal.

Kellogg's Bran is sold by all grocers and is supplied in individual packages at first-class hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant!

POTATO GROWERS ARE IN THE CITY

E. W. Smith of Minnesota Potato Growers Association, Launches Acreage Pledges

CAMPAIGN TO CLOSE DEC. 21

Short and Intensive Drives Produce the Results, County Asked to Sign 1,230 Acres

E. W. Smith, representative of the Minnesota Potato Growers Association, spoke at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon at a potato growers meeting in the farmers room at the court house. A large number of local farmers were present to hear Mr. Smith.

Practically every county in the state is enthusiastically joining in the potato growing campaign which is now being launched for next year. It is expected that 350,000 acres will be planted in Minnesota in 1924 under contracts with the association. About 75,000 acres of this total has already been secured, and the work is hardly started as yet.

The acreage desired for counties in the vicinity of Brainerd for potatoes the coming season is of interest. Crow Wing county, for example has a quota of 1,230 acres; Cass county 5,017; Aitkin county, 2,064; Miller county, 7,318; Morrison county, 10,193; Todd county, 12,615, and Wadena county, 6,79 acres.

In six or seven counties, where the drive to secure contracts has been completed, the quotas for these counties has been exceeded in some cases as much as 350 acres. It is expected that most of the counties in the state will exceed their allotments.

Hubbard and Itasca counties will finish their campaigns for contracts by December 12th, it is expected, and Crow Wing and Cass counties by the 21st of this month. Short, intensive drives are the rule, and farmers are responding even better than was at first expected. The plan has been explained to them before, and the majority of them are eager to try out the proposition, it is stated.

Mr. Smith has five counties in the Brainerd district under his supervision, and is very enthusiastic over the manner in which the campaign is starting.

WEAKNESS IN AGE RULE FOR BOXERS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Dec. 7.—One of the rules of the New York Boxing Commission, prompted, no doubt, by a high purpose, provides that a boxer under the age of twenty-one cannot engage in bouts of more than six rounds.

Ostensibly, this rule was enacted to safeguard undeveloped youngsters from the permanent effects of serious injuries that might be sustained in the ring and applied to youth who have not reached their full development.

There are very few boxers who are not physically fit to stand the gaff at the age of eighteen to twenty, however, and the rule results in misstatements of age to get around the rule.

Jack McAuliffe, the veteran lightweight and the only unbeaten retired champion, takes issue with the commission on the theory that a boy is in danger when he is permitted to go fifteen rounds before he has reached his legal majority.

"All of the oldtimers fought their best fights when they were between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one. I was going through finish fights with bare knuckles and skin gloves when I was eighteen, and I believe that I am a good example that it didn't hurt me. Jack Dempsey fought his best fights when he was under twenty-one, and John L. Sullivan was in his best form in his youthful days," McAuliffe said.

With this rule in effect, Young Stribling, the eighteen-year-old Georgia light heavyweight, is not permitted to box more than six rounds in New York, although he has gone ten, twelve and fifteen rounds in other places. Stribling, to the eye of a layman, certainly looks strong enough to go twenty or thirty rounds.

Being reasonable under its new administration, the commission agreed to suspend the rules in Stribling's case, if he would engage in several six rounds and submit to an examination by commission doctors after the bouts.

William Muldoon, chairman of the commission, knows as much about physical culture as any expert in the business but, like a great many experts, he takes his business too seriously, and he applies general rules to every individual case.

In the attitude of the commission that an eighteen-year-old boxer should take his time and not be in too much of a hurry to get out and hustle, some inconsistencies are apparent.

To Stribling, to young Dave Shade, a year or so ago, and others, the commission said: "You have plenty of time to make yourself. You have three or four years in which to take it easy, and at the end of that time you will be stronger, better equipped technically and more able to mix with better boxers where the big money can be secured."

To Gene Tunney, Joe Lynch, Mickey Walker and Mike McTigue, the same commission said not two weeks later: "You champions had better get out and defend your titles. You can't tell when boxing is going to get a sock from congress or the state legislature. When you refuse to defend your titles you are passing up golden opportunities of today that may be gone tomorrow."

This question also brings up the point: "Is boxing more dangerous for an eighteen-year-old athlete than any other line of sport?"

BRAINERD HIGH TO MEET ST. JOHN'S

BLUE AND WHITE BASKETBALL TEAM GOES TO COLLEGEVILLE ON SATURDAY MORNING

(By L. P.)
Saturday morning the Brainerd high school journeys to Collegeville to meet the fast St. John's College team. It will be remembered that Fred Sanborn, a product of the Brainerd high school, is coaching this team. This is in the nature of a practice game for both teams, St. John's to prepare for the heavy schedule of first class college teams of the state; Brainerd high to prepare for their eleven game schedule which opens next week when the Blue and White clash with the fast Staples five.

The boys have received stiff competition from the second team all week and much can be expected from them. Coach Rosel will take the following men: Capt. Engbretson, Molstad, Day, Lowe, Heikkinen, Peterson and Zakariassen.

STORM OF CRITICISM OVER BUFFALO HUNT

Minneapolis, Dec. 7.—An answer to the storm of criticism emanating from various sportsmen's organizations over the proposed buffalo hunt which is to take place near Pierre, S. D., next week, was made by Ed. L. Eylar, president of the Hennepin County Sportsmen's Club, who says the objections are being raised by sportsmen uninformed as to the true facts in the case.

The hunt is to take place on the ranch of "Scotty" Phillips, who has a privately owned herd of buffalo. Captain W. H. "Billy" Fawcett and J. H. Stair, well known sportsmen, are the Minneapolis members of the party of five who will take part in the hunt. Clarence Parker, Minot, H. L. Watson, North Portal, Sask., and Tony Chezik, Portal, N. D., are the others.

Will Observe Sportsmen's Ideals

"I am well acquainted with J. H. Stair and Clarence Parker," Eylar said today, "and know that neither would take part in any venture which would in any way conflict with the letter or spirit of the rules laid down by sportsmen's organizations."

"I have known of Phillips' buffalo herd for years and have been much interested in it. Phillips has no intention of having his herd exterminated or depleted, though it would be his privilege under the law, to do so if he wished."

"Each year," said Eylar, "certain of the bulls which have become dangerous to the rest of the herd are killed. This is necessary, just as it was in Minneapolis a few years ago, when two bull elk in the herd at Minnehaha Falls, were ordered killed when, because of their ugly dispositions, they had become a menace to the rest of the herd."

"As I understand it, Phillips has marked certain of his semidomesticated herd for killing this year. These hunters will not go in and kill promiscuously. They will not shoot any of the cows, but only the bulls which have been selected for killing."

"I believe that with a better understanding of the situation the Northwest sportsmen who have criticized the hunt will withdraw their objections."

"The Silent Command" is Booked at Lyceum

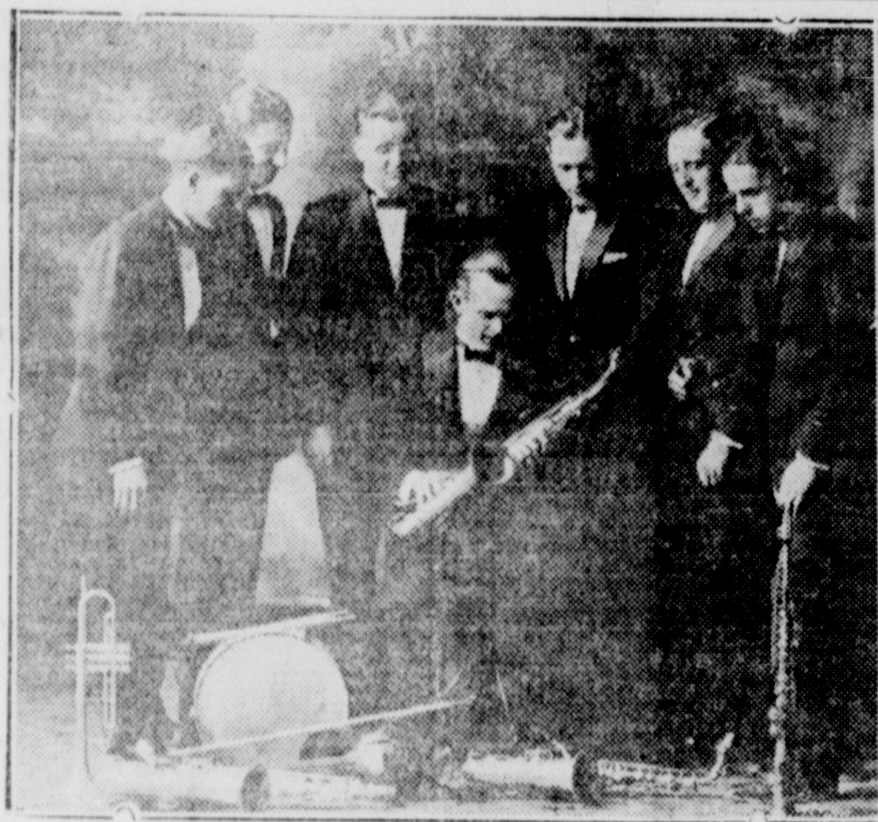

The engagement of "The Silent Command," at the Lyceum Theatre starting Sunday, should prove one of the red letter bookings of the season. This William Fox production has received the strongest kind of endorsements wherever shown. It has been particularly complimented for the strength and novelty of its plot and the number and thrilling qualities of its dramatic situations.

Katherine MacDonald in "Money, Money, Money!"

The title of the latest Katherine MacDonald picture tells that an up-to-the-minute topic has been selected as the theme, "Money, Money, Money," which will be shown at the New Park tonight only. It is the seasonal debut of Miss MacDonald. It is her first production for First National release in 1923.

At the New Park

Many huge sets were erected for the photodrama, "Rupert of Hentzau," which is scheduled to show at the New Park Theatre on Saturday and Sunday, and of these the representation of one of Europe's most noted cathedrals was by far the largest. It measured almost three hundred and seventeen feet in length and covered the entire width of the famous stage six on the United studio lot.

Vaudeville at the New Park Tonight

Four big vaudeville acts and Katherine MacDonald in "Money, Money, Money," at New Park tonight only. Joe McGowan's Master Musicians headlining, 7 people in their one act.

A short description of the acts to be presented at the New Park tonight only:

1. Joe McGowan's Master Musicians, with Mae Brady singing in "Words and Music." Six red hot musicians with a real repertoire of the latest melodies, among which will be found McGowan's own number, "My Melody."

2. Alice Lewis. "A Barn Yard

Flapper." Alice Lewis, a native daughter of the Golden West is making her first appearance here. For the last three years Miss Lewis has been playing in numerous musical comedies. Miss Lewis sings special song numbers and has a bright line of chatter.

3. Jean & Art Keeley in "Her First Lesson." Comedy, athletic, novelty. Jean & Art Keeley offer a unique novelty introducing Miss Jean Keeley, world's greatest champion boxer.

4. Wink and Jean Downing in "Now You Know." But do you? To tell you about this act would spoil it for you. You'll be surprised!

WILLIAM RUSSELL IN ALIAS THE NIGHT WIND WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION

The disappearance of $100,000 in bonds is the flame which kindles action in "Alias the Night Wind," the William Fox production starring

William Russell, that will open at the Lyceum Theatre tonight for a 2 day run.

Round 6 of "Fighting Blood" is on the same program.

Untouched Irish Wealth.

Recent reports on the mineral resources of County Leitrim and adjacent parts of Ireland indicate the possibility of developing a great mining industry in that country. Experts say that the Connought coal fields are capable of yielding from 20,000,000 to 30,000,000 tons, and of supporting thousands of laborers, although at present they do not maintain one hundred. So the iron-seamed district between Dromahair and Arigna, which might be expected to give employment to tens of thousands and to develop a "miniature Pittsburgh," at present does not support a solitary individual.

The Wonderful Horse.

O horse, you are a wonderful thing; no buttons to push, no horns to honk; you start yourself, no clutch to slip; no spark to miss, no gears to strip; no license-buying every year, with plates to screw on front and rear; no gas bills climbing up each day, stealing the joy of life away; no speed cops chugging in your rear, yelling summons in your ear. Your inner tubes are all O. K. and, thank the Lord, they stay that way; your spark plugs never miss and fuss; your motor never makes us cuss. Your frame is good for many a mile; your body never changes style. Your wants are few and easy met; you've something on the auto yet.—H. R. Elliott in the American Forester.

On Road To Boneyard

"I have just finished a treatment of your wonderful remedy and can say it has done wonders for me already. For the past five years I have been unable to eat any but the lightest food and that but sparingly, as any food caused me to bloat with gas. I was reduced to a skeleton of ninety pounds, and was on the road to the boneyard. A friend in Birmingham sent me a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which I took, and I am sure it will entirely cure me of my trouble, judging from what it brought from me and the way I feel." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and leading druggists in every town.—Advt.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Advt.

WEAKNESS IN AGE RULE FOR BOXERS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Dec. 7.—One of the rules of the New York Boxing Commission, prompted, no doubt, by a high purpose, provides that a boxer under the age of twenty-one cannot engage in bouts of more than six rounds.

Ostensibly, this rule was enacted to safeguard undeveloped youngsters from the permanent effects of serious injuries that might be sustained in the ring and applied to youth who have not reached their full development.

There are very few boxers who are not physically fit to stand the gaff at the age of eighteen to twenty, however, and the rule results in misstatements of age to get around the rule.

Jack McAuliffe, the veteran lightweight and the only unbeaten retired champion, takes issue with the commission on the theory that a boy is in danger when he is permitted to go fifteen rounds before he has reached his legal majority.

"All of the oldtimers fought their best fights when they were between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one. I was going through finish fights with bare knuckles and skin gloves when I was eighteen, and I believe that I am a good example that it didn't hurt me. Jack Dempsey fought his best fights when he was under twenty-one, and John L. Sullivan was in his best form in his youthful days," McAuliffe said.

With this rule in effect, Young Stribling, the eighteen-year-old Georgia light heavyweight, is not permitted to box more than six rounds in New York, although he has gone ten, twelve and fifteen rounds in other places. Stribling, to the eye of a layman, certainly looks strong enough to go twenty or thirty rounds.

Being reasonable under its new administration, the commission agreed to suspend the rules in Stribling's case, if he would engage in several six rounders and submit to an examination by commission doctors after the bouts.

William Muldoon, chairman of the commission, knows as much about physical culture as any expert in the business but, like a great many experts, he takes his business too seriously, and he applies general rules to every individual case.

In the attitude of the commission that an eighteen-year-old boxer should take his time and not be in too much of a hurry to get out and hustle, some inconsistencies are apparent.

To Stribling, to young Dave Shade, a year or so ago, and others, the commission said: "You have plenty of time to make yourself. You have three or four years in which to take it easy, and at the end of that time you will be stronger, better equipped technically and more able to mix with better boxers where the big money can be secured."

To Gene Tunney, Joe Lynch, Mickey Walker and Mike McTigue, the same commission said not two weeks later: "You champions had better get out and defend your titles. You can't tell when boxing is going to get a sock from congress or the state legislature. When you refuse to defend your titles you are passing up golden opportunities of today that may be gone tomorrow."

This question also brings up the point: "Is boxing more dangerous for an eighteen-year-old athlete than any other line of sport?"

BRAINERD HIGH TO MEET ST. JOHN'S

BLUE AND WHITE BASKETBALL TEAM GOES TO COLLEGEVILLE ON SATURDAY MORNING

(By L. P.)

Saturday morning the Brainerd high school journeys to Collegeville to meet the fast St. John's College team. It will be remembered that Fred Sanborn, a product of the Brainerd high school, is coaching this team. This is in the nature of a practice game for both teams, St. John's to prepare for the heavy schedule of first class college teams of the state; Brainerd high to prepare for their eleven game schedule which opens next week when the Blue and White clash with the fast Staples five.

The boys have received stiff competition from the second team all week and much can be expected from them. Coach Rosel will take the following men: Capt. Engbretson, Molstad, Day, Lowe, Heikkinen, Peterson and Zakariassen.

TED COX CAPTAIN OF MINNESOTA U. FOOTBALL TEAM

(By United Press)

Minneapolis, Dec. 7.—Ted Cox was elected captain of the University of Minnesota football squad for 1924 at a meeting today.

When secret ballots were opened it was discovered there were five votes each for Cox, Chester Gray, Louis Gross and Carl Lidberg. Gay moved that a unanimous vote be cast for Ted Cox and the team so voted.

Krause, Knauff Sign

Grand Forks, N. D., Dec. 7.—Battling Krause of Bismarck and Johnny Knauff of Fargo, the leading lightweights of the state, will headline Grand Forks first winter boxing show, to be held here Dec. 11. Billy Edwards of Grand Forks and Fritz Kowalski of Fargo will appear in the semi-main event. Two preliminaries of six and four rounds complete the card.

STORM OF CRITICISM OVER BUFFALO HUNT

Minneapolis, Dec. 7.—An answer to the storm of criticism emanating from various sportsmen's organizations over the proposed buffalo hunt which is to take place near Pierre, S. D., next week, was made by Ed. L. Eylar, president of the Hennepin County Sportsmen's Club, who says the objections are being raised by sportsmen uninformed as to the true facts in the case.

The hunt is to take place on the ranch of "Scotty" Phillips, who has a privately owned herd of buffalo. Captain W. H. "Billy" Fawcett and J. H. Stair, well known sportsmen, are the Minneapolis members of the party of five who will take part in the hunt. Clarence Parker, Minot, N. D., and Tony Chezik, Portal, N. D., are the others.

Will Observe Sportsmen's Ideals

"I am well acquainted with J. H. Stair and Clarence Parker," Eylar said today, "and know that neither would take part in any venture which would in any way conflict with the letter or spirit of the rules laid down by sportsmen's organizations."

"I have known of Phillips' buffalo herd for years and have been much interested in it. Phillips has no intention of having his herd exterminated or depleted, though it would be his privilege under the law, to do so if he wished."

"Each year," said Eylar, "certain of the bulls which have become dangerous to the rest of the herd are killed. This is necessary, just as it was in Minneapolis a few years ago, when two bull elk in the herd at Minnehaha Falls, were ordered killed, when because of their ugly dispositions, they had become a menace to the rest of the herd."

"As I understand it, Phillips has marked certain of his semidomestic-ated herd for killing this year. These hunters will not go in and kill promiscuously. They will not shoot any of the cows, but only the bulls which have been selected for killing."

"I believe that with a better understanding of the situation the Northwest sportsmen who have criticized the hunt will withdraw their objections."

"The Silent Command" is Booked at Lyceum

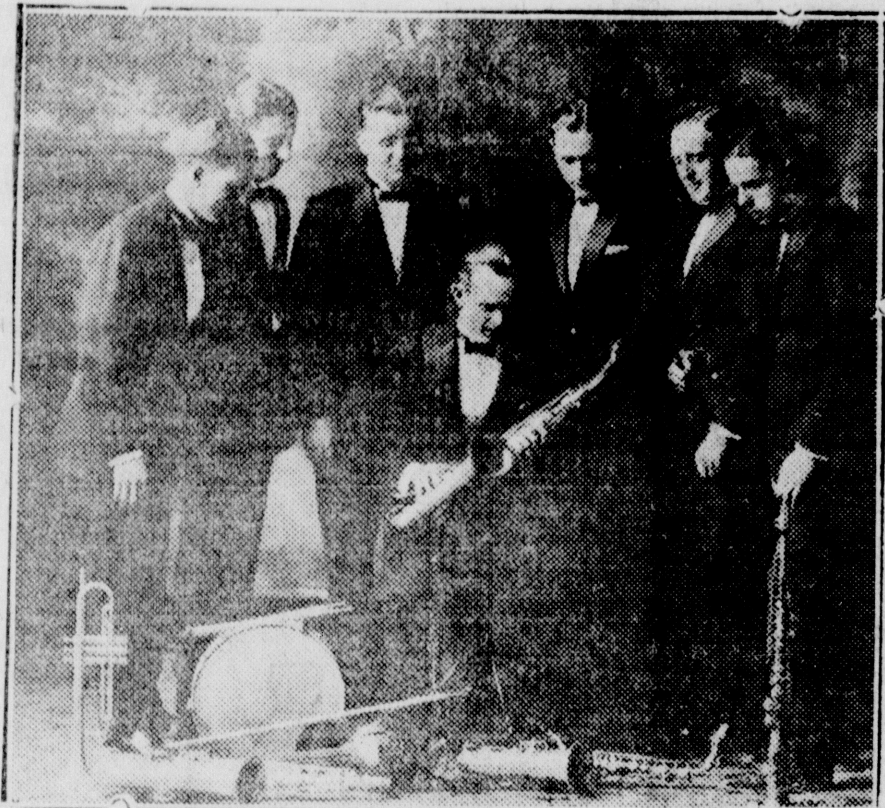

The engagement of "The Silent Command," at the Lyceum Theatre starting Sunday, should prove one of the red letter bookings of the season. This William Fox production has received the strongest kind of endorsement wherever shown. It has been particularly complimented for the strength and novelty of its plot and the number and thrilling qualities of its dramatic situations.

Katherine MacDonald in "Money, Money, Money!"

The title of the latest Katherine MacDonald picture tells that an up-to-the-minute topic has been selected as the theme, "Money, Money, Money," which will be shown at the New Park tonight only. It is the seasonal debut of Miss MacDonald. It is her first production for First National release in 1923.

At the New Park

Many huge sets were erected for the photodrama, "Rupert of Hentzau," which is scheduled to show at the New Park Theatre on Saturday and Sunday, and of these the representation of one of Europe's most noted cathedrals was by far the largest. It measured almost three hundred and seventeen feet in length and covered the entire width of the famous stage six on the United studio lot.

Vaudeville at the New Park Tonight

Four big vaudeville acts and Katherine MacDonald in "Money, Money, Money," at New Park tonight only. Joe McGowan's Master Musicians headlining, 7 people in their one act. A short description of the acts to be presented at the New Park tonight only:

1. Joe McGowan's Master Musicians, with Mae Brady singing in "Words and Music." Six red hot musicians with a real repertoire of the latest melodies, among which will be found McGowan's own number, "My Melody."

2. Alice Lewis, "A Barn Yard

Flapper." Altee Lewis, a native daughter of the Golden West is making her first appearance here. For the last three years Miss Lewis has been playing in numerous musical comedies. Miss Lewis sings special song numbers and has a bright line of chatter.

3. Jean & Art Keeley in "Her First Lesson." Comedy, athletic, novelty. Jean & Art Keeley offer a unique novelty introducing Miss Jean Keeley, world's greatest champion boxer.

4. Wink and Jean Downing in "Now You Know." But do you? To tell you about this act would spoil it for you. You'll be surprised!

WILLIAM RUSSELL IN ALIAS THE NIGHT WIND WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION

The disappearance of $100,000 in bonds is the flame which kindles action in "Alias the Night Wind," the William Fox production starring

William Russell, that will open at the Lyceum Theatre tonight for a 2 day run.

Round 6 of "Fighting Blood" is on the same program.

Untouched Irish Wealth.

Recent reports on the mineral resources of County Leitrim and adjacent parts of Ireland indicate the possibility of developing a great mining industry in that country. Experts say that the Connought coal fields are capable of yielding from 20,000,000 to 30,000,000 tons, and of supporting thousands of laborers, although at present they do not maintain one hundred. So the iron-seamed district between Dromahaire and Arigna, which might be expected to give employment to tens of thousands and to develop a "miniature Pittsburgh," at present does not support a solitary individual.

The Wonderful Horse.

O horse, you are a wonderful thing; no buttons to push, no hors to honk; you start yourself, no clutch to slip; no spark to miss, no gears to strip; no license-buying every year, with plates to screw on front and rear; no gas bills climbing up each day, stealing the joy of life away; no speed cops chugging in your rear, yelling summons in your ear. Your inner tubes are all O. K. and, thank the Lord, they stay that way; your spark plugs never miss and fuss; your motor never makes us fuss. Your frame is good for many a mile; your body never changes style. Your wants are few and easy met; you've something on the auto yet.—H. R. Elliott in the American Forester.

On Road To Boneyard

"I have just finished a treatment of your wonderful remedy and can say it has done wonders for me already. For the past five years I have been unable to eat any but the lightest food and that but sparingly, as any food caused me to bloat with gas. I was reduced to a skeleton of ninety pounds, and was on the road to the boneyard. A friend in Birmingham sent me a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which I took, and I am sure it will entirely cure me of my trouble, judging from what it brought from me and the way I feel." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and leading druggists in every town.—Advt.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Advt.
